CIRCULAR

Over a period of one year the college has been prominently offering planter to the guests and dignitaries while greeting them at different events and programmes organized by the college.

Recently, the University of Delhi has conveyed message of the government of India for swapping bouquets with books or khadi products.

It is requested to all the in-charges and concerned that planters, books or khadi products should be preferred in place of bouquets while greeting guests and dignitaries at different programs organized by the college.
